What is bpha's Extra Care Housing?

Extra Care housing offers a new way of supporting you to live independently and maintain a quality of life for as long as possible.

At Centurion House you have the privacy of your own home with your own tailored support package to suit your individual needs. For added reassurance, emergency care is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

There are a range of facilities for you to enjoy and share with friends and relatives in a secure environment.

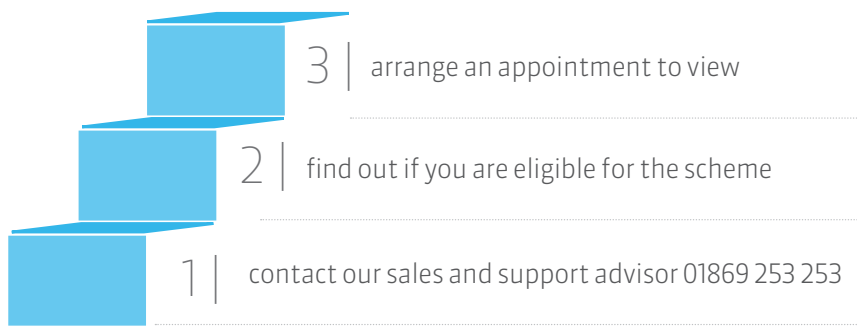

Who is the housing provider?

bpha is a registered charity, one of the UK's leading providers of high quality residential and Extra care housing schemes for the elderly, with over 16,000 properties under management and is registered with the Homes and Communities Agency.

Why purchase an apartment under shared ownership?

With shared ownership, you can purchase 50 or 75% of your new home and pay for the care and support you require.

To purchase an apartment

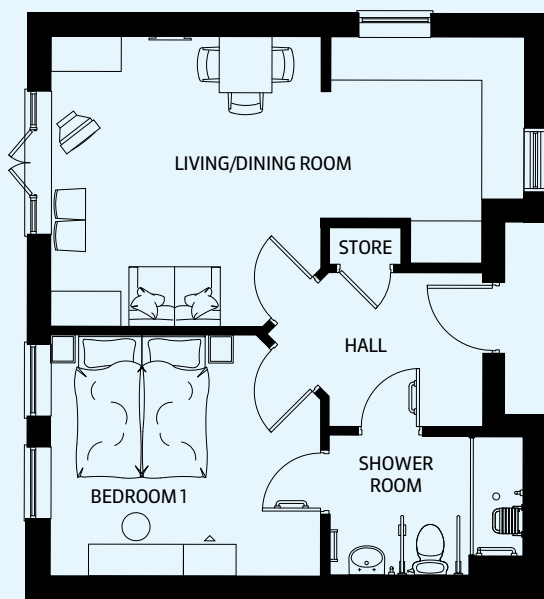

Centurion House provides communal facilities such as:

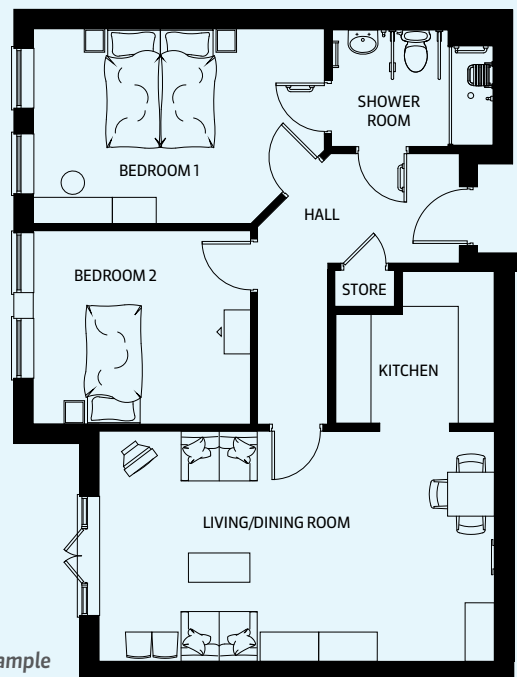

- A guest room to accommodate family or friends when they visit
- A laundry room which can be used by you or your carer
- Dining area to enjoy and share a lunchtime meal

About Bicester

Bicester is an historic market town in the Cherwell District of the county of Oxfordshire. Bicester was recorded in the Domesday book.

Bicester Town railway station is just a short walk away from the scheme and has a direct link with Oxford City.

Bicester is probably best known for its modern “Bicester Village” shopping outlet which is 1.9 miles from Coach House Mews. Bicester Town centre is 0.9 miles.
