Introducing Abbeyfield Apartments

Foreword

The Abbeyfield Society is a charity that has provided housing and care for older people for over 60 years. We are delighted to announce the arrival of 49 new Abbeyfield Apartments in Malmesbury.

Opening in the summer of 2017 this project is the result of local demand to provide flexible accommodation and care in one location, for people wishing to retain their independence but with the assistance to do so.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Set in the beautiful and thriving town of Malmesbury, our new independent living facility caters for those who want to live later life in a safe and comfortable setting – one that is well-connected to the local community and support services.

Founded in 1956 by Major Richard Carr-Gomm, the Abbeyfield Society has grown from a single house in Bermondsey, London, to providing services to over 7,000 residents in 500 houses and homes across the UK. Our guiding principles are as relevant today as they were then; to provide companionship, care, practical support and peace of mind to older people.

About us

We strive to provide an environment that supports the values and preferences of the people who come to live with us, providing a support network between residents, families, volunteers and the local community.

Our Abbeyfield Apartments – self-contained accommodation built to a high specification – have been developed to offer you the choice to live as independently as you wish, within a friendly community setting. Whatever your care needs, we tailor our services around you to ensure you get the support you need to live as independently as possible.

We aim to make a real difference to the lives of those people who live with us. Whilst our care for older people takes on many forms, our work is driven by the same commitment – our dedication to making time for older people so that life is happy, sociable, comfortable and safe.

Abbeyfield is there for you every step of the way to help you make the most of life through times of change.

Home from home

Each apartment has been designed to provide quality living accommodation, including a private entrance, a fully fitted kitchen, ample storage space, a level access shower and double glazed windows. Most ground floor apartments are afforded direct access to a private patio area and the splendid outside space.

Modern materials will ensure that your new home is cost effective and energy efficient. Each element has been thoughtfully designed with ease of care in mind so that your home is easy to look after. Our maintenance team will take care of the outside chores, clearing guttering and keeping the grounds tidy.

As part of the Wellbeing charge (more information is included in this pack), Burnham Court provides a safe environment with staff available 24 hours a day and an emergency call button in your home should you ever need it – offering true peace of mind.
