Listening to what you want

We know that each person is different so we really take the time to understand your requirements. Care staff are carefully matched with you and the times of visits are dictated by you to fit in with your lifestyle.

Why PerCurra is different

We believe that everything should be considered possible to give our clients the quality of life they wish for. If this presents challenges then we will do our utmost to find a way to overcome them.

We Deliver:

- An excellent standard of care delivered by trained, dedicated staff
- Services delivered at a time convenient to you
- Care tailored to your wishes and needs

“ PerCurra’s out of hours service ensures 24 hour support from senior staff”

Specialist Training

Our staff are committed to ongoing professional development and receive high quality specialist training to equip them to sympathetically and expertly support clients coping with physical or sensory impairment or conditions such as epilepsy, acquired brain injury, multiple sclerosis, dementia and learning disabilities.

Positive Outcomes

With expert care, support and understanding it may be possible to regain control and improve well-being. This can result in fewer care hours being required or even a return to total independence.

Costs

We operate a clear and easy to understand pricing structure.
