Care and support on your doorstep

At Heald Farm Court, a dedicated care team is available to you round the clock, providing flexible support tailored to individual needs, and as a lifeline in case of an emergency.

Staff are in daily contact, as you wish, to ensure your well-being. Social activities and events are also organised for your enjoyment.

The specialist team enables you to continue to live independently in your own home and maintain a good quality of life. Additional support is available with personal care, medication, preparing meals, cleaning and laundry.

Having help at hand, whenever you need it, gives you that all-important reassurance.

Safety and peace of mind

You will have no worries about security. A video door entry system enables you to find out who your visitors are before opening the front door, all from the comfort of your own apartment or bungalow.

Help is always at hand with our emergency call system which allows you to call for staff assistance at any time of the day or night.

Helping you get more out of life

At Heald Farm Court, you choose how you want to live your life.

If you don't feel like cooking at home, appetising meals are available at the café.

If you feel like joining in activities and outings, there will be plenty to choose, encouraging a wider network of friends and neighbours.

The attractive and well-maintained gardens provide plenty of outdoor space for you to enjoy in comfort.

The Location

Heald Farm Court is situated on Sturgess Street in Earlestown, Newton-le-Willows. The town centre is just a five minute walk away, offering a wide range of shops, banks, public houses and cafeterias. Earlestown offers a thriving traditional market on Mondays and Fridays.

There are two GP surgeries and a pharmacy in the locality.

Within walking distance is Crownway Community Church where residents are welcome to join in.

St Helens and Warrington town centres are easily accessible via frequent bus services. The town centres offer an even greater choice of amenities including cinemas, restaurants and shopping facilities.

Where are we?

Road communications in the local area are good; with easy reach to major motorways including the M6, M62 and the A580 East Lancashire Road. Earlestown also benefits from its own railway station with direct trains to Manchester, Liverpool and Warrington.

From the North/South. Leave the M6 at junction 23 signposted A49 South (Major roundabout – Haydock Island). Follow signs for A49 South, Newton le Willows. Travel along the A49 (Ashton Road) for just over a mile to a mini roundabout. Turn right onto the A572 (Crow Lane East).

From The East/West. From junction 10 of the M62 take the A49 (Newton). Continue for about two miles, past Newton station along Church Street/High Street. At the mini roundabout turn left onto the A572 (Crow Lane East). Follow the directions in italics opposite.

By Bus. Arriva bus service operates via Sturgess Street. Take the 34A from St Helens or Earlestown Bus Station.

By Train. Earlestown Station is the closest railway station to Heald Farm Court. The station is approximately ten minutes walk away. There is no bus service direct from the station to Sturgess Street. For walking directions, please contact Heald Farm Court.
