Welcome to life at Larmenier Village

Named after the foundress of the Sisters of Nazareth, Larmenier Village is the first of the new-style Nazareth Retirement Villages that will take retirement living to a new level.

The Sisters, an international congregation, have 150 years' experience of caring for older people and are renowned for the high quality of their services. Through Nazareth Retirement Villages, the Sisters are offering retired people a model of independent living that reflects their core values of dignity, respect, patience, justice, hospitality and love.

Located on the site of the former Nazareth House in leafy Beardwood on the edge of the beautiful Ribble Valley, the site has undergone a transformation to become a bright, attractive retirement village where comfort and security go hand in hand.

Set in over 4 acres of grounds, Larmenier Village stands at the end of a private driveway amongst mature trees and gardens which provide a haven of peace and tranquillity for wildlife. Here, one and two-bedroom apartments and bungalows specifically designed to enhance the quality of life are available for purchase.

New residents will soon discover that the Village, with its enviable range of social and leisure facilities and support services, has many of the attributes of a country house hotel, combined with a friendly atmosphere.

The following pages tell you in more detail what Larmenier Village has to offer.

Larmenier Village

Relax in country house style

Village Restaurant

Think of relaxation and stylish, comfortable living and you'll immediately have a flavour of our approach to the design of Larmenier Village. Cosy lounges, garden terraces and patios, leisure areas, high quality furnishings and first-class services are all part of the daily experience.

The Village offers a superb range of facilities, equipped to high standards all conveniently located and designed to make life effortless.

On the ground floor of the main building, Southworth House, the elegant restaurant provides attractive surroundings in which to enjoy delicious meals. For those looking to entertain, the private dining room can be booked to host family celebrations. Our daily 3-course lunch menus are extensive and varied. The well-stocked Thwaites Bar (named after a member of the famous local brewing family who once lived on the site), and the stylish coffee shop are just two of the places where friendships can flourish. The spacious lounge, games room and library are also ideal places for getting to know new neighbours.

In addition, a unisex hairdressing salon and a therapy room provide easy access to pampering. A therapist is available for massage, aromatherapy, manicures, pedicures and a variety of other treatments. A visiting doctor's surgery provides a useful and reassuring service.

The Chapel

A lift provides easy access to the lower ground floor. Here you will find an activities room with ample space for any number of hobbies and pastimes, as well as a private cinema complete with armchairs for comfortable viewing.

The air of tranquillity engendered by the Sisters of Nazareth, who have owned the property since 1917, continues and a special feature of Larmenier Villlage is the beautifully designed octagonal chapel where daily services are held.

The Village Manager is at hand to ensure the smooth day-to-day running of all aspects of the Village and to see that the facilities and services offered meet with your requirements.

Enjoy

There is no lack of destinations for outings from the Village which is situated at the edge of some of the loveliest countryside in England. These include Clitheroe's Norman castle and historic Whalley Abbey, whilst close by stands Samlesbury Hall, a black and white 14th-century manor house renowned for its resident ghost. Even closer at hand for special evenings out are the nearby Thwaites Empire Theatre and King George's Hall, both offering a wide variety of arts and entertainment

The area surrounding Larmenier Village provides many opportunities for sporting enthusiasts to follow games of their choice. A variety of golf courses lie within easy reach including Pleasington, Wilpshire, Blackburn, Whalley and Clitheroe.

Followers of Association Football are also spoilt for choice: there are several famous clubs with a rich history nearby including Blackburn Rovers, Bolton Wanderers, Burnley and Preston North End. Lancashire is also famous for its cricketing traditions and a number of clubs play in the local leagues. In addition the area is well served with bowls clubs.

If fine food interests you then the Ribble Valley Food Trail is a good place to start. It is home to some of the North West's most dedicated food producers and inspirational chefs. There is a superb choice of shops, restaurants, cafés and pubs in the valley's historic towns and villages.

As well as having its own minibus, the Village enjoys excellent transport services and links.

There are bus stops at the bottom of the drive which provide access to the Ribble Valley, Preston and Blackburn and train stations at both Wilpshire and Blackburn.
