Sheltered & Extra Care Housing Scheme for Older People

33 x One bedroom flats
4 x Two bedroom bungalows

More than just a landlord

Impact is a charitable housing association based in Cumbria. When we originally set up in 1975 our name reflected what we set out to do – Improvement through Action. We provide a range of high quality housing, support and other services.

Jenkins Crag Court

Jenkins Crag Court offers accommodation for people over 55 years. It provides sheltered accommodation and additional care services for some residents who may need help to maintain their independence and remain at home.

The development is a mix of 33 one-bedroom flats and 4 two-bedroom bungalows. All properties are self contained and let on an Assured Tenancy. The scheme recognises the need for privacy for residents, but also provides the opportunity to participate in social activities.

There will be a wide range of additional facilities including:

- Guest room
- Assisted bathroom
- Laundry
- Communal meeting room with kitchen facilities for use by residents and the local community
- Office
- Computer suite

Other features include:

- Full wheelchair access
- Flexible on site care team 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
- Scheme Manager and community alarm
- Range of additional services, eg. window cleaning, garden maintenance
