

St Anns

Kettering. Northamptonshire

St Anns is situated close to the town centre of Kettering in Northamptonshire. The home is ideally located near the train station and Northampton is only 15 miles away. St Anns is a purpose-built residential home that has been providing quality care for the elderly since 1993. It offers a warm and caring environment to a varied range of residents, including those suffering from a physical or mental disability, as well as the elderly.

Accommodation in St Anns is available in a choice of single, single en-suite or companion rooms, which are all pleasantly decorated. Residents are encouraged to personalise their room with their own belongings to help create more familiar surroundings.

Meals may be taken in either of the two delightful dining areas, or in the privacy of residents' own rooms. Our skilled resident cook prepares a range of appetising and nutritionally balanced meals, taking into account any specific dietary requirements or individual preferences. Morning coffee, afternoon tea and other snacks are available throughout the day.

At St Anns life is for living, and a full and active lifestyle is encouraged. Our Activities Organiser arranges a varied social calendar of activities and entertainment.
