Welcome to Bournville Gardens Village

We're delighted to welcome you to Bournville Gardens Village, part of the ExtraCare Charitable Trust collection.

Set on the outskirts of Birmingham city centre, located in Bournville, our village provides independent living in beautiful surroundings for over 55s. We're a registered charity and our mission is to provide homes people want, a lifestyle they can enjoy and care if it's needed. Part of our philosophy is that later life is a time for doing more, not less, that's why we encourage residents to take part in our varied activity schedule and to start new hobbies.

The village is a safe haven for all and there is a real sense of belonging among both staff and residents at Bournville Gardens Village. Everyone looks out for each other, residents and staff care about each other's wellbeing - we really are like one big family.

Use your time at Bournville Gardens Village to make new friends, try exciting activities and enjoy our wonderful facilities.

We look forward to welcoming you into our community!

Ask one of the team for our activities schedule.

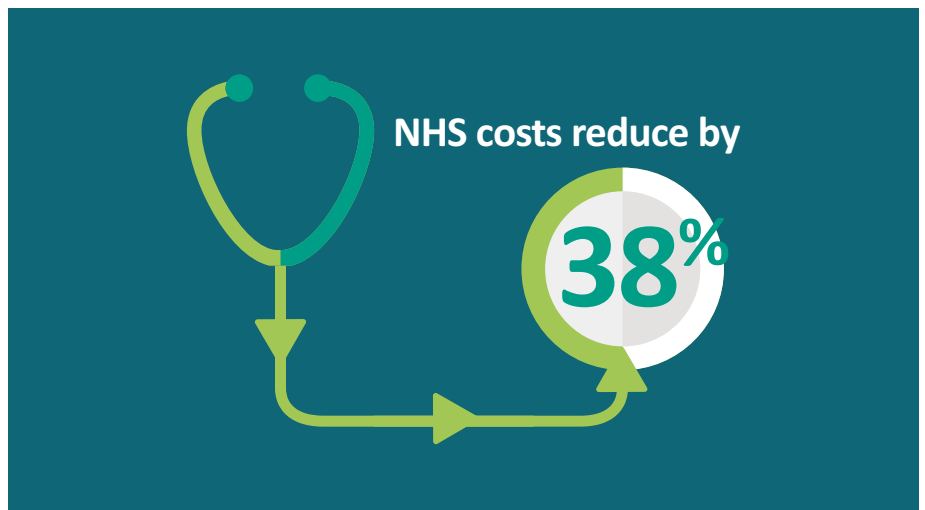

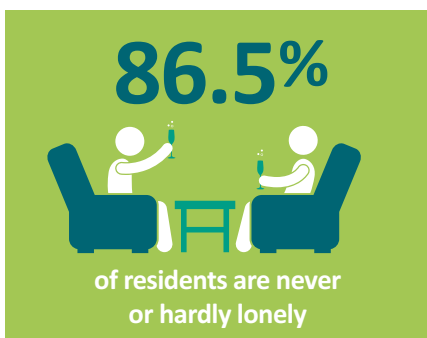

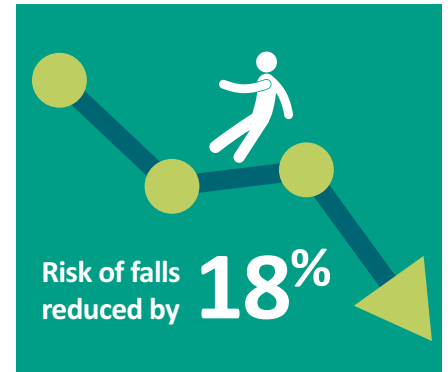

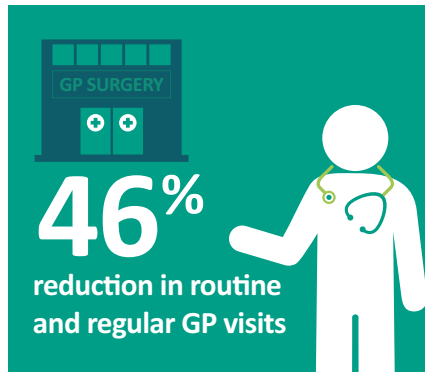

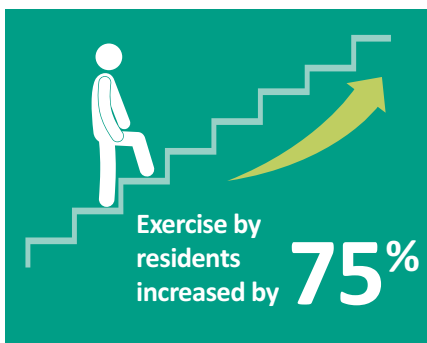

It's terribly important that the example ExtraCare has set is more widely known and communicated to society, particularly to people in local governments so that they can realise the benefits to the health service that these villages bring.

Making an impact

Findings from an independent study into healthy ageing carried out by Aston and Lancaster Universities (2019) evaluated how our unique model of integrated homes, health and social care makes a real difference to older people's lives.

The research found that after moving in, residents felt a significant improvement to their physical and mental health.

Light and spacious apartments

All homes at Bournville Gardens Village provide independent living as part of a wider, bustling community.

Each home has been thoughtfully designed to enhance your life. We've thought about every last detail so you don't need to worry about a thing. All you need to do is move in and start making memories.

A safe haven for our residents

In June 2020, we caught up with residents across our village network to ensure they continue to feel safe and secure. Here's what they had to say about ExtraCare villages:

‘I’ve made some wonderful new friends since moving here and the staff are amazing.

Megan, 83, lives alone but feels safe

‘There’s no stress, everything you want is here. But it’s the peace of mind for me and for my children - that’s what’s most important.

Myrtle, 82, keeps active with fitness classes

‘Sometimes I sing to other residents from my balcony! Nobody minds, it’s brilliant. Everyone is so friendly - what more can I say?

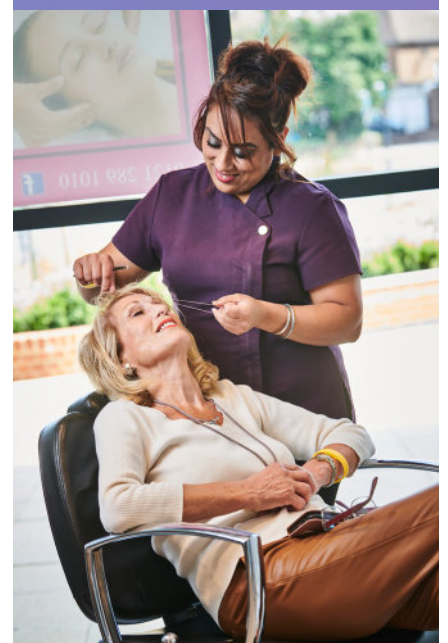

Ron, 93, loves the security and companionship

‘I’ve got everything under one roof here. I’ve got to know all my neighbours - everyone speaks to everyone, it’s really good.

David, 64, enjoys the quiz nights

Did you know...

- The village opened in 2015
- Our 212 homes are made up of one and two bedroom apartments
- Affordable living options are provided through social rent or shared ownership
- Properties can also be purchased outright
- The village team provides care to residents who require it
- Dependent on individual circumstances we can support significant assessed care needs, including dementia
- We have car parking available for residents and guests

Discover the local surroundings

Bournville Gardens Village is located in Bournville on the outskirts of Birmingham. The area is world famous for its chocolatey history, but it has so much more to offer, with its beautiful green spaces and breathtaking architecture. Bournville values its Quaker and Cadbury roots, so the local Trust's maintain the heritage of the area. Bournville has great transport connections with a well-connected bus service and a train station located a short distance away.

Birmingham city centre, famously known as the 'first manufacturing town in the world', has a rich heritage in the world of food, music, literature, art, and canal networks. You can be sure that there is always something to do in Birmingham, as this vibrant, cultural city offers a range of shopping outlets, brilliant restaurants and pubs, and lots of different attractions to suit everyone. There is nothing better than taking in the wonderful architecture of the city as you adventure down the canals, stopping off at each of the exciting establishments.

Retail therapy

Bournville Gardens Village is located near quaint shopping establishments, with major supermarkets a short bus journey away.

In Birmingham city centre, the Bullring shopping centre is perfect for meeting all your retail needs with a range of different stores.
