Introduction

Kinloch Court is set in the small village of Blackwaterfoot on the southwest coast of Arran. Blackwaterfoot has a small harbour and golden beach overlooking the impressive Kilbrannan Sound. Brodick (10 miles away) and the rest of Arran can be easily accessed by local bus services, and a regular ferry runs from Brodick to Ardrossan, from which Glasgow is only another hour away by train.

About your home

The development is well established within the local community and offers 10 cottages. Each property has its own kitchen, livingroom, bedroom and bathroom.

Peace of mind

Kinloch Court has a visiting local representative who is on hand to help and support residents.

Residents benefit from our repairs service which is available 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

Security

The standard safety and security features are installed throughout the development.

These include fire alarms and a sophisticated call system in each flat, which provides communication with an alarm centre 24 hours a day.

Local amenities

The following amenities are available close to the development:

- Local shops
- Post office
- Other amenities are available at Brodick

What is amenity housing?

Amenity housing provides housing for older people aged 60 years and above.

However, younger people who demonstrate a need for amenity housing may sometimes be considered. Personal care and support is not provided by Isle of Arran Homes, but can be provided by the local council's social work staff or private agencies.
