

Murray Cottages

Edinburgh
City of Edinburgh
EH12 7UH

Murray Cottages is set in a quiet secluded spot in the heart of the highly sought after Edinburgh suburb of Corstorphine. Boasting a bustling well equipped high street, Corstorphine has a host of well known names and boutiques, as well as smaller independent traders catering to the needs of the local community. Edinburgh city centre is easily accessed by a regular bus service and, for those travelling further afield; Haymarket and Waverly rail stations can link passengers to towns and cities across Scotland and England.

About your home

The development, which has listed building status, is well established within the local community and offers 21 period cottages, set amongst extensive landscape gardens. Each property has its own kitchen, livingroom, bedroom and bathroom.

Murray Cottages

Peace of mind

Murray Cottages has a visiting local representative who is on hand to help and support residents.

Residents benefit from our repairs service which is available 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

Security

The standard Trust safety and security features are installed throughout the development. These include fire alarms and a sophisticated call system in each flat, which provides communication with an alarm centre 24 hours a day.

Friendship

Residents organise regular events such as day outings, Christmas parties and Burns Suppers, giving our residents the opportunity to come together to foster a positive community spirit.

Local amenities

The following amenities are all available close to the development:

- Doctors surgery
- Supermarket
- Local shops

- Post Office
- Bank
- Hairdresser (may visit the development)
- Local fishmongers (may visit the development)

What is amenity housing?

Amenity housing provides housing for older people aged 60 years and above. However, younger people who demonstrate a need for amenity housing may sometimes be considered. Personal care and support is not provided by Trust, but can be provided by the local council's social work staff or private agencies.
