Millicent Buller House is a retirement housing scheme with 38 flats in total, consisting of 35 studio flats and 3 single one bedroom flats.

Our facilities

Welcoming and supportive

Millicent Buller House is designed to encourage independent living. Support is available if needed.

Residents are encouraged to use the large communal garden with family and friends, other residents or on their own.

There is a communal lounge which can be used by all residents and on site activities take place here. There is also a kitchen attached with tea and coffee making facilities.

There is a communal laundry which is free for all residents to use.

A guest room is available for visitors to stay in. There is a charge per person per night and the room can be booked in advance via the scheme manager.

Our services

Care and commitment

All our services are in place to allow residents to live as independently as they can.

There is a residential scheme manager to encourage independent living. The scheme manager is available between the hours of 8 am and 4 pm, Monday to Friday.

Eldercare provides an emergency 24 hour alarm system all year round. If you need urgent assistance, there are pull cords in each of the flats and the communal lounge.

Activities

Things to do, places to go

Staff encourage residents to organise their own events and activities as part of our drive to encourage independent living.

We hold weekly tea and coffee mornings on Wednesdays and have guest speakers who come and talk about different topics.

There is also the New Horizons Centre down in Cadogan Street and every Wednesday a bus takes residents from the scheme to the centre.
