

Retirement living at

The Acres

Uffington Road, Barnack, PE9 3EN

This delightful community is a sleepy hollow of beautiful stone bungalows and gardens, located in the village of Barnack, approximately 12 miles from Peterborough city centre.

Its perfect country location is also conveniently located for easy access to both Peterborough and Stamford, with a nearby bus stop providing great transport links.

Two smaller housing areas make up the whole community - Little Northfields has sixteen bungalows, while the Acres has twenty six bungalows – a mix of both one and two bedroom homes. The communal lounge and kitchen are perfect for all the social events that will keep you busy, plus there are also fully maintained communal gardens for you to enjoy.

This site has an idyllic rural location, so you can enjoy the peace and tranquillity of the countryside on your doorstep.
