English Churches Housing Group (ECHG) is a multi-award winning provider of housing and support for older people and single homeless people. Since joining the Riverside Group ECHG is now the Group's leading sheltered and supported specialist provider, working in over 170 local authorities.

Thirlmere Court 'sheltered housing' was built in 1985. We have 31 single flats and 10 double flats within the 'Scheme'.

*Tenants ages range from 55 upwards
Ideally situated Thirlmere Court is set back 50 yards from Breck Road shopping centre Anfield.*

Thirlmere Court is easily accessible to all local amenities. A good shopping centre with a local library, post office, chemist, doctor's and excellent bus and taxi service, everything you need on your door step.

Thirlmere Court has the benefit of a well established local residents association that integrate well with the scheme, along with the Breckfield Community Centre which offers various facilities for all ...

Within the scheme itself there is a lot to offer. A large communal lounge and kitchen, which is an extension of your own 'private flat' if you wish to use it.

There is a smaller quieter lounge with library on the first floor.

A communal laundry with washing machines, dryers, an iron and plenty of room outside for hanging out washing.

A fully equipped hair salon with a local hairdresser that visits the Scheme each week. A twin bedded Guest Room with 'en-suite' facilities, for those relatives or friends that may wish to stay over when visiting.

Security of a 24 hour CCTV system and 24 hour support from our Helpline system.

A full time Scheme Manager.

Social activities such as Bingo, Bacon Butty morning and lunch club, these are optional, It's up to you.
