HOUSING ASSOCIATION

Bradeley Village is the UK's first and largest social housing 'village' for older people.

Built in 1994, it has 238 one and two bed apartments situated in the main village and nearby annexes.

The vibrant village centre offers lots of facilities and social opportunities.

A vibrant village community life

At Bradeley Village you can enjoy a whole new lifestyle with lots of social opportunities and activities within a secure, supportive environment.

A great place for you to live, and for your family and friends to visit.

With all the right facilities

Hairdressing salon, general store, gym, Video/DVD store, meeting rooms, bar, lounge, coffee shop, games room, thrift shop and landscaped gardens.

Bradeley Village has its own resident-run limited company which manages most of the facilities and recycles profits back into the village facilities and activities for residents.

Ageing well

Live an independent, purposeful life within a mixed community of people aged over 55.

Reassurance for you and your family that you are safe, secure and have lots of opportunities to live, learn and have fun.

The chance to be a resident volunteer to help you realise your potential and make the most of your golden years.

The main village building on Brammer Street contains most of the apartments and the lively village centre with its variety of amenities and activities.

The Outlook, situated just above the main village building, contains apartments and a light and airy residents' lounge..

Pioneer Place, opposite the main village building on Brammer Street, contains apartments.

Village accessibility

All buildings at the village have lifts and the car parks have spaces for use only by disabled people.

“I love it here.
It’s like living in a 5 star hotel”

Apartments at Bradeley Village are offered for rent to people over 55 years of age.
