YOUR DESCRIPTION

Harpenden Bethesda Home is a purpose built residential home accommodating up to twenty-three service users over the age of 65 years. The organisation's head office is on the same site in a separate building. There are ample parking spaces within the grounds. The home is situated on the outskirts of Harpenden town centre, within easy reach of public transport and the local shops..

There is a large communal lounge and a separate dining room, together with kitchen, laundry and administrative offices. The home has a large and attractive garden bordered by mature trees, with seating provided for people who live in the home and their visitors. All the rooms and the garden are accessible to wheelchair users
