YOUR DESCRIPTION

Hill House is a large Country House formerly the country retreat of the Chamberlain family. Situated within its own grounds of eleven acres, the gardens are a magnificent feature and are for the enjoyment of residents, and their friends. From the house there are wonderful views across the Dauntsey Vale. The picturesque small market town of Malmesbury with its magnificent Norman abbey, is two miles to the North West, Swindon twelve miles to the South East and Chippenham eight miles to the South. Access to the M4 is approximately nine miles (J16 and J17). There is a fast train service to London and Bristol from Swindon and Chippenham.
