YOUR DESCRIPTION

Birchley Hall is an historic listed building, situated within Billinge in the historic county of Lancashire, between St Helens and Wigan.

We aim to provide quality residential care for elderly people, respecting their individual needs, abilities and aspirations and promoting independence of thought and action. We maintain a safe, pleasant and homely environment thus enabling every resident to exercise choice, enjoy social interaction and practice spiritual beliefs. This enables our residents to have the greatest quality of life possible, within an atmosphere of dignity and privacy, engendered by our well trained staff and volunteers.
