YOUR DESCRIPTION

Harrogate Neighbours Association is committed to maintaining the highest possible standards in the provision of all services. The Association will endeavour to provide an efficient, responsible, courteous and caring management service to all the residents, members of staff and contractors.

The management team at Heath Lodge will assess, plan, implement and evaluate personal care needs with every resident. On application for permanent residency every applicant will be fully assessed as to their needs. This initial assessment will establish the suitability of Heath Lodge with regard to staffing levels and expertise available to provide the care needs of each and every prospective resident. This is essential in the promotion of personal freedom and self determination. Applicants for permanent residency will be invited to stay at Heath Lodge in order to assist them and their representatives choose the most suitable Home.

The Association will endeavour of the staff and management at Heath Lodge to promote and maintain an atmosphere of living that will;

- Provide an independent lifestyle
- Retain personal dignity irrespective of all disabilities
