YOUR DESCRIPTION

Set within 42 acres of parkland, Hethersett Hall enjoys all the benefits of the Norfolk countryside and yet is close enough to the A11 to make it easily accessible to family and friends. This late-Georgian house boasts stunning views across the park, and is planted with mature and unusual specimen trees. A haven for all kinds of wildlife, it is also the perfect spot for birdwatching.

With a sympathetic extension, then extensive renovations program in 2004, Hethersett Hall successful blends old and new to retain much of its original character.
