YOUR DESCRIPTION

At Cuerden Grange we are committed to the provision of quality Residential and Nursing care in accordance with local and health authority requirements. All employees, existing and new, shall be made aware of our aims and objectives through induction and training.

In partnership with the multidisciplinary care team and the related authorities, we aim to provide the highest possible standard and range of quality services and care for our residents and their families, whilst continuing to respect their right to individuality and independence.

We aim to provide care encompassing the six basic values - Privacy, Dignity, Independence, Choice, Rights and Fulfilment - and as such our aim is to provide a place to call 'home'.
