YOUR DESCRIPTION

Rodwell Farm Nursing Home is a delightful, detached character home, set in a one acre site in rural Surrey. Residents and their relatives can have the benefit of its modern care facilities whilst also enjoying its peaceful grounds throughout the year.

The home is owned and managed by a husband and wife team, Ernie and Dr Karan Graham, whose aim is to provide professional care and support in a homely environment.

The home has been fully modernised and extended to create three separate social groups for its residents. There are two lounges for older people: one in a secure area for those with confusion and another for the physically frail with active minds.
