YOUR DESCRIPTION

Blair House is situated in the picturesque seaside town of St Leonards near Hastings in a quiet residential area, very close the sea. The home is located close to local bus routes, shops, churches and doctors surgeries. Blair House is a large Georgian Town House which has been tastefully converted and refurbished to meet the needs of elderly residents suffering from Dementia, who require specialist residential care. The home has 3 spacious, well furnished lounges, and a dining area, providing a comfortable and relaxing atmosphere for residents and their guests. There is also a sensory room with specialist equipment provided to aid stimulation and relaxation for those suffering with Dementia related illnesses. Blair House has a secure, peaceful and secluded rear garden with plenty of tables and seating.
