YOUR DESCRIPTION

Originally built in the 1960's Water Royd House has always been used as a Care Home. In 2003 however, the old building was demolished to make way for a completely new care home with class-leading standards. The home has a well maintained garden and a secluded patio for residents and a large visitor car park can accommodate up to 20 cars.

Water Royd House is set in the small village of Gilroyd, close to Barnsley town centre. It is close to the M1 and easy to access. The home itself is also ideally located for nearby shops, library, hairdressers, surgery, pharmacy, public house and post office.
