YOUR DESCRIPTION

Glebelands aims to provide a comfortable home in a caring environment, and is set in its own grounds near the centre of Wokingham in East Berkshire. All rooms have a lovely view of the grounds, a wash-basin, television and telephone and a refreshing cup of tea is brought to you every morning before breakfast. Expert care staff are on duty 24 hours a day including trained nursing staff, though Glebelands is not yet registered to accept those in need of nursing care.

The main house is a grade 2 listed large country house built in the late Victorian era and offers spacious well-appointed accommodation. The House has an atmosphere of calm and contentment while an air of gracious living pervades the extensive communal rooms. There is a library, cinema, bar, snooker room and a conservatory plus a rose garden within the extensive private gardens. There are 8 acres of rolling lawns, mature trees including a giant cedar and woodland, which provide a delightful setting for retirement or a holiday.
