

Personal Assistant Services

Good Companions is an established care provider working in Rochdale and surrounding areas.

Our aim is to support people to be as independent as possible and to have choice and control of their lives.

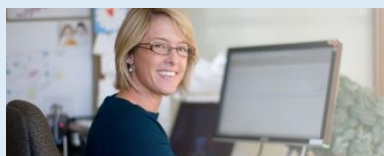

We provide a full range of social and health care services in your home and community.

All our customers are treated as individuals with different difficulties, which affect their ability to manage their daily life independently.

Our consistent and excellence in care is managed using our company policies and our ever increasing knowledge and experience.

Staff have experience and training and are supported to successfully work with adults with various learning and physical disabilities as well as older people.

'We are committed to the highest standard of care for all our customers to enable them to enjoy life to the full and to live happy independent lives'
