Live-in Care is exactly as it sounds! A live-in care worker will live with you in your own home, often becoming a trusted, welcomed friend. They'll be on hand 24/7 to help with everything from personal care and medical matters, to housework and social activities. They can even assist you at college, work or on holiday.

You can have as much or as little support and privacy as you need on any given day. Live-in care offers the ultimate flexibility, choice and control while enabling you to stay right where you are.

Making a difference to our clients' lives is a privilege not a job

What to expect from Noble....

Well-trained, committed care professionals with recognised qualifications and DBS checks. They are some of the industry's best!

Did you know ....

Our team are trained to work with all adults aged 18+.

We support adults living alone, with a partner (with or without care needs) or with family.

We support people with physical and learning disabilities; health conditions like MS and dementia; brain and spinal injuries; life-limiting diagnoses; and later life care needs.

We offer long-term care to empower to you to live an independent, full life, your way.

We offer a minimum of seven days support, or longer to meet your needs.

We offer reablement care (min.7 days) to help you get back on your feet after an operation, illness or hospital stay.

We specialise exclusively in live-in care, so we know what works for our customers and develop our processes and training to match.

We offer palliative and end-of-life care to support you to spend your remaining time comfortably at home with family and friends.

We assist with catheter, convene and stoma care, PEG feeds and physiotherapy exercises. Our specialist training will give you confidence in our support.

We belong to a group of companies who offer daily visiting care and complex, nurse-led home care so you can stay within our group if your needs change.

We work with privately funded, and partially or wholly Local Authority/NHS funded clients. We can help you understand your options.

Our fees are comparable to residential care giving you a financially realistic alternative and often favourable way of life.
