Rural Independent Living Service

Helping people to live well with dementia and memory issues

Support at home

Are you worried about your memory? Can you remember your wedding day or holidays in the past but forget what you had for breakfast, or what you saw on TV last night?

We can all forget things, but if you are concerned that your memory is getting worse, help is available through Curo's Independent Living Service.

Talk to us in confidence - whether it's about you or a loved one you care for.

The Independent Living Service is a personalised service tailored to your needs, support accessing benefits, aids and adaptations, help organising care, regular visits and so much more.

We also provide alarms linked to a 24-hour call centre

How can we help?

We are a dedicated local and rural able to give you confidential advice and support.

We offer:

- Home visits
- Village drop-ins
- Help over the phone
