Freedom through information

Tourism for All UK is the UK Voice for Accessible Tourism. We are a national charity dedicated to making tourism welcoming to all.

How we can help you?

We give information to help you find where you can go, stay or visit.

At Tourism for All we believe that everyone deserves a break away, and a choice of travel and leisure opportunities, whatever their age, disability or circumstance.

Each year we receive over 300,000 telephone, email and written enquiries from disabled people and their carers. We give the information and confidence to take a break you may not have previously believed possible.

We offer an active network, passing on information about the best, and seeking to help change the worst. We need your help for this to work.

Our service offers information on all aspects of accessible tourism and travel in the UK and overseas, including:

- Accessible accommodation
- Accessible visitor attractions and activities
- Accessible transport
- Mobility equipment hire at holiday destinations
- Accessible overseas holiday providers
- Sources of holiday funding
- Many more individual requirements – contact us for further details

Membership

Join Tourism for All

Become a member of Tourism for All and enjoy:

- A reservations service with discounted hotel rates – accessible rooms at discounted rates, up to 35% off, at participating hotels all over the UK and Europe.
- A free copy of OpenBritain Guide (worth £14.99 inc P&P) – our high quality annual national guide book to accessible Britain, which includes a wide range of accessible accommodation, as well as attractions, transport, equipment hire and other services.
- Regular Newsletters and E-Bulletins – with news, new places to stay and visit, members articles, developments in the law and practises in the tourism sector, and more.
- Up to 5 free Regional and specialist access information guides (worth £3.50 each) – online, or in printed information guides.
- Access to members only areas of the TFA website – including a members forum, where you can share stories, post enquiries, and give feedback so that you can benefit from the experiences of others, and play a role in pushing forward the agenda in making change happen.
- Many other time-limited exclusive offers on holidays, places to stay and visit which are published on the TFA Website and in the newsletter.
- NEW! Exclusive members' days at accessible attractions.

We need your support

Your membership helps empower the charity to bring pressure to bear, and promote good practice, advice and training, to tourism providers and public sector policy makers. If we work together, we can 'take the disability out' of leisure and tourism and achieve our goal of Tourism for ALL.

Freedom of access

How we work with the tourism industry and policy makers.

Apart from providing a unique holiday and travel information service for disabled people and their carers, Tourism for All also works closely with all sectors of the tourism industry to stimulate improved access provision.

- We offer a range of consultancy services covering access audits, inspections and disability awareness training for staff.
- We work with policy makers, businesses, and organisations of disabled people.
- We chair the government Department of Culture, Olympics, Media & Sport Accessible Tourism Stakeholders Forum.
- We have helped demonstrate to the industry that accessibility means good business
- We offer an online training programme to hospitality staff.

We can offer business membership to companies and hospitality staff professionals committed to offering a welcome to all.
